Numb. 528.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM JANUARY 18. TO JANUARY 25. 1738,9.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.

ON the 13th Inſtant, the General Aſſembly of this Province, then ſitting, ſent up to the Governor, for his Concurrence, a Bill, entituled, An Act for Reprinting, Exchanging and Re-emitting all the Bills of Credit of this Province, and for ſtriking the farther Sum of 11,110*l.* 5*s.* to be emitted upon Loan. On the 17th the following Meſſage came down from his Honour, to the Houſe, on the Subject of that Bill, viz.

GENTLEMEN,

" AS I determined, on my firſt taking upon " me the Adminiſtration of this Govern- " ment, to make Honour and Juſtice the Rule " of all my Actions, and that no Temptation " ſhould induce me to deviate from that Rule, " I concluded, that I ſhould not ſtand in need " of the little Arts and Subterfuges, of neceſſity " put in Practice by ſuch as have no other View, " than that of enriching themſelves by the Spoils " of thoſe they ought to cheriſh and protect; " and as I have not hitherto found myſelf miſ- " taken, I ſhall, with my uſual Sincerity, give " You my Sentiments on Your Paper-Money Bill; " which I have conſidered with all the Atten- " tion I am capable of, as well as with the trueſt " Regard to the Reputation and Welfare of the " Province.

" Your Paper Currency, by this Bill, is ſuppo- " ſed equal to Proclamation-Money, according " to an Act of Parliament made in the Sixth " Year of the late Queen Anne, For aſcer- " taining the Rates of Foreign Coins in the Plan- " tations of America. The contrary of this is " evident, ſince, as you yourſelves are ſenſible, " Exchange betwixt Philadelphia and London is at " Seventy per Cent. your Currency is at this time " 36*l.* 13*s.* 4*d. per Cent.* worſe than Procla- " mation-Money; the Difference betwixt that " and Sterling being but 33*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* This be- " ing the caſe, the Injuſtice of obliging (as this " Bill does) all Perſons to receive it as Procla- " mation-Money, in Diſcharge of Bonds, Rents, " &c. tho' contracted to be paid in Engliſh Mo- " ney, is apparent; and contrary to the Intention " of all Laws, which ought to ſecure Men's " Rights, and not deſtroy them. I muſt there- " fore recommend to You, that a Clauſe be ad- " ded, effectually to provide for the Payment " of all Sterling Debts and the Proprietary Quit- " Rents, according to the true and real Rate of " Exchange between Philadelphia and London, " at the time of ſuch Payments; for without " ſuch a Clauſe, I cannot, conſiſtent with Your " Proprietors Inſtructions, and my own Securi- " ty, give my Aſſent to this Bill. And that " You may ſee I do not induſtriouſly ſeek for " Arguments, to diſappoint You of a Bill you " have ſo much at Heart, I herewith ſend You " a Copy of their Inſtruction to me on this head.

" I conceive it will not be thought neceſſary " for me to enter minutely into a Juſtification of " this Inſtruction, when the Sentiments of that " Aſſembly, which paſſed the laſt Paper-Money " Bill in 1729, in their Addreſs to the Propriе- " tary Family, ſhall be conſidered. I chuſe " therefore only to tranſcribe a Paragraph of that " Addreſs, viz. As thoſe Quit-Rents are to be " paid in Engliſh Money, or Value thereof in Coin " current, it is our Senſe, and ſo it muſt always be " underſtood, that an Engliſh Shilling, the common " Quit-Rent for one Hundred Acres of Land, can " be no otherways diſcharged than by ſuch a Shilling, " or the real Value of it, in the current Coin then " paſſing. And to obſerve, that as the Payment " of the Proprietary Quit-Rents is now as much " diſputed as ever, notwithſtanding this honeſt " Declaration; no Method is likely, ſo effec- " tually to put an end to theſe Diſputes, and to " prevent Law-Suits, which will be attended " with great Expence to the Country, as the Ad- " dition of ſuch a Clauſe to this Bill as is mention- " ed in that Inſtruction.

" When I reflect on the great Privileges and " Benefits confer'd on the Inhabitants of this " Province by the firſt Founder of it, on the " grateful Acknowledgements made of them by " a Number of ſucceſſive Aſſemblies, and on the " ſincere Inclinations of Your preſent Propriе- " tors,

" tors, to do every Thing that may add to your
" Proſperity; I perſwade myſelf, that You will,
" conſiſtent with your Characters, ſhew as much
" Juſtice in preſerving their Rights, as their
" Father did Affection in ſecuring your Liber-
" ties.

" The Right Honourable the Lords Com-
" miſſioners for Trade and Plantations, having
" by their Secretary, in a Letter to the late Go-
" vernor Gordon, declared their diſlike of the
" Bills of Credit paſſed in this Province, and their
" Reſolution, if any more ſuch ſhall be paſſed,
" to lay them before his Majeſty, for his Diſ-
" allowance; I would adviſe that Your whole
" Paper Currency be not riſqu'd in one Bill;
" for ſhould it be repealed after the Bills have cir-
" culated thro' many Hands, how great will be the " Confuſion? Should You reſolve however to
" hazard all, would it not be more prudent to
" ſettle your whole Currency at Seventy Five
" Thouſand Pounds? For as that Sum is known
" to their Lordſhips to have been heretofore e-
" mitted by ſeveral Laws, and the ill Conſe-
" quences attending ſuch Emiſſions have not been
" ſo great, as in the Places mentioned by their
" Lordſhips, they may be the more reaſonably
" induced ſo to recommend this Bill to his Ma-
" jeſty, as that it may not be repealed.

" It gives me ſome Uneaſineſs, that I
" ſhould be obliged to object to a Bill you think
" ſo eſſentially neceſſary for the Trade and Well-
" being of this Province; but every candid and
" impartial Perſon will acquit me of the leaſt
" diſregard to Your Intereſts, and acknowledge,
" that I cannot act otherwiſe, without the Im-
" putation of Injuſtice, and without incurring the
" Guilt of a Breach of Truſt.

GEORGE THOMAS.

VIIIth INSTRUCTION.

" WHEREAS the making, emitting, or con-
" tinuing too large a Quantity of Paper-Mo-
" ney, or Bills of Credit, within the ſaid Province
" and Counties, may greatly affect the Exchange
" and the Trade of the ſaid Province, and more
" particularly may affect the Rents and Quit-Rents,
" which now are or hereafter ſhall become due to
" the Proprietors; You ſhall not therefore, on any
" Pretence whatſoever, paſs or give your Aſſent
" to any Law or Act of Aſſembly within the ſaid
" Province, or within the ſaid Counties, either for
" making, emitting, encreaſing or continuing any
" Paper Currency or Bills of Credit whatſoever,
" unleſs there be inſerted in each and every ſuch
" Law or Act, one or more enacting Clauſes, to
" provide effectually, that the Quit-Rents and other
" Rents due and to be due to the Proprietors, ſhall
" all be paid from time to time according to the true
" and real Rate of Exchange between the Cities of
" Philadelphia and London, at the time of ſuch
" Payment.

A true Copy. By Command,

THOMAS LAWRIE, Secretary.

The above Meſſage was accompanied with divers propos'd Amendments to the Bill, among which, the following was the principal, viz. To the Clauſe that makes the Paper-Money a lawful Tender in all Caſes whatſoever, add, " All Duties, and " other Debts that now are or hereafter ſhall be " contracted to be paid in Sterling Money, " due or to become due to his Majeſty, his " Heirs and Succeſſors. All Debts, Rents and " Quit-Rents already agreed, or that hereafter " ſhall be agreed to be paid in Sterling Money, " now due or that may become due to the Pro- " prietaries of this Province. And all Debts " due to his Majeſty's Subjects in Great-Bri- " tain, agreed to be paid in ſuch Sterling Mo- " ney, only excepted. And be it further enact- " ed by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and " every ſuch Duties, Rents and Quit-Rents, " ſhall be paid in ſuch Money as is or ſhall be " particularly agreed or contracted for, or in " the ſaid Bills of Credit, according to the " Courſe of Exchange between the City of Phi- " ladelphia and the City of London, at the Time " ſuch Payment ſhall be made, any thing herein " contained to the Contrary thereof in any wiſe " notwithſtanding.

In anſwer to the above Meſſage, the Houſe ſent up the following to the Governor, viz.

May it pleaſe the Governor,

HAVING taken into our Conſideration, that Amendment ſent down to the Bill, for Reprint- ing, Exchanging, and Re-emitting all the Bills of Credit of this Province, and for ſtriking the farther Sum of 11,110*l.* 5*s.* to be emitted upon Loan, which excepts all Debts, Rents, and Quit-Rents already agreed or that ſhall hereafter be agreed to be paid in Sterling Money, now due or that may become due to the Proprietors of this Province; we are humbly of Opinion, that ſuch an Exception in the Bill, would tend greatly to the leſſening the Credit of our Paper-Money, and conſequently muſt very deeply affect our Trade and Commerce, both among ourſelves and with Strangers.

And we beg leave to ſay farther, That in our Judgment, the Amendment propoſed will rather be injurious to our Proprietors, than otherwiſe, as well in the Sale of Lands not yet granted, as in receiving the large Sums of Money now due for Lands already ſold.

Signed by Order of the Houſe,

A. HAMILTON, Speaker.

With this Meſſage the Houſe requeſted a Conference with the Governor, in caſe his Honour ſhould not think fit to recede from the propos'd Amendment.

The next Day the following Meſſage came down from the Governor to the Houſe, viz.

GENTLEMEN,

" WHATEVER comes from the Repreſen-
" tatives of the Province, will always
" have its due Weight, with one diſpoſed, as I
" am

" am, to uſe all honourable Means to preſerve " Harmony and a good Underſtanding with " them. I cannot however, but own myſelf a " little diſappointed, by your Meſſage relating " to the Paper-Money Bill now before you; the " Amendments ſent to you, having been accom- " pany'd with a particular Meſſage from myſelf, " containing, as I thought, unexceptionable " Reaſons, why I cannot paſs that Bill, as it is " now drawn: But you have been pleaſed to " overlook that Meſſage, and object only to one " of the Amendments propoſed, for the follow- " Reaſons, viz.

" Becauſe you apprehend it will tend greatly to " to the leſſening the Credit of your Paper-Money, " and conſequently affect Trade and Commerce.

" And, becauſe it will be injurious to the Pro- " prietors, as well in the Sale of Lands not yet " granted, as in receiving the large Sums of Money " now due for Lands already ſold.

" In Reply, I muſt freely tell you, that no Cre- " dit but what is founded on Juſtice, can long " ſubſiſt: And that, had your Currency been " really of equal Value with Proclamation-Mo- " ney, Exchange had never riſen ſo high, nor " theſe Amendments been at this Time propoſed " to your Bill. And farther, that the Credit of " the Paper-Money in other Colonies, has not " been leſſened on Account of any ſuch Excep- " tions, but becauſe th: Sums emitted have been " above their real Wants; of which the preſent " State of it in Boſton, Maryland and Carolina, " are evident Proofs.

" To the ſecond Reaſon, I Reply, That Com- " mon Juſtice entitles the Proprietors to the real " Value of their Quit-Rents, and that without " the Exceptions propoſed, it is evident from " times paſt, that they will not be better treated " for the time to come, even tho' ſucceeding " Aſſemblies ſhould declare as that did in 1729.

" Your Proprietors muſt be contented, when " Juſtice is done them in Regard to their Quit- " Rents, to run the ſame Hazard with you in " Regard to the Sums due, or that may be due " on the Sale of Lands, thoſe being generally " Contracts of another Kind. And it will be no " ſmall Benefit to your Currency, that they will " be engaged in Intereſt to keep up the Credit of " it, and to keep down Exchange, and will be " obliged to purchaſe the Produce of the Coun- " try to make Remittances; the Sums due to " them on Sale of Lands, being very much grea- " ter than thoſe due for Quit-Rents.

GEORGE THOMAS.

The Governor having agreed to a Conference with the Houſe, the ſame was held at his Honour's Houſe on Saturday laſt, of which we ſhall give a particular Account in our next.
